The journey continues through the famous Dolomiti and the Karen pass and the homonymous lake, where reflect the wild rock towers of Latemar and the Rose garden. Trough Canazei the journey continues in great rocky landscapes to the Sella pass and Val Gardena with carving village Ortisei. Here you have a break. Transfer to Castelrotto, and through the wonderful landscapes back to Bolzano. Dinner and overnight.

7° Day: MERAN AND TRAUTTMANSDORFF CASTLE GARDENS

breakfast visit Merano. A mild climate and southern plants can sometimes work wonders. That made aware the doctors, already in the middle-19th century, of the advantage of this climate, so that many guests come here from all over Europe. The most prominent guest was Empress Sissi from Austria, which moved into her winter residence in Trauttmansdorff. Today, around this historic site, there is the botanical garden. In the gardens of Trauttmansdorff plants are gathered from around the world, but also the typical South Tyrolean landscape. During a walk you go through water and terraced gardens slope, leading to the Sensual Garden or the Japanese Garden, to the cactus and succulent or the plant care of the South such as olive trees and grapevines.
