The Menton Lemon Festival born in 1934, is a world event that attracts every year more than 230,000 visitors. On the sunny promenade are organized parades, with decorated cars with citrus fruits, confetti, dancers and folklore groups for entertainment. The giant floats in Scene Set celebrated Lemon Mood makers, Fanfares and other charming creatures. During the festival, in the Biove gardens there are sculptures yellow and orange, done with beautiful citrus. Some of these sculptures are up to 10 meters high.
